

MY VILLAGE

I come from Köstendorf. It's a little village near Salzburg. In Köstendorf, there live about 2,600 people. There are three schools: a middle school, a primary school and a school for children with special needs. There is a kindergarten and a bank, too.

In Köstendorf, we have a couple of small shops. Next to the main square, there is a bakery, a flower shop and a restaurant, called "Taferne". Opposite the middle school there is a football ground. Next to the bakery, there is a fire brigade. In Köstendorf, we also have a big church.

What I like about living in Köstendorf is that there is a sense of community, there are a lot of green fields and meadows, and all the people are very friendly. There are many farmers in our village and it's a very clean place. But for me the most important thing is that I can always go to my friends and they also live here.
